1-Enoch: Faith to Walk with God

Icebreaker: Real Christian

Discuss your reaction to this quote.

“A real Christian is an odd number anyway. He feels supreme love for One Whom he has never seen, talks familiarly every day to Someone he cannot see — expects to go to Heaven on the virtue of Another, empties himself in order to be full, admits he is wrong so he can be declared right, goes down in order to get up — is strongest when he is weakest, richest when he is poorest, and happiest when he feels worst. He dies so he can live, forsakes in order to have, gives away so he can keep, sees the invisible, hears the inaudible and knows that which passeth knowledge.” -A.W. Tozer

- To walk with God, you must deal with your sin [1John 1:6-7]. Discuss what it means to deal with your sin.
- To walk with God, you must be willing to allow Him to occupy your thoughts [Gal 5:22-23]. What are some things about Jesus’ life that show us how to walk with God [1John 2:6]?
- To walk with God, you must continue in your faith [Col 2:6-7]. What helps you continue in your faith?

When you are planning to go somewhere, what do you want to know before you go?

Questions for Study or Discussion: When He Calls

- A life of faith involves going where God wants us to go [Gen 12:1 and Heb 11:8-10]. What are some of the things He wants us to leave behind [2Cor 5:17 and Eph 5:6-7]?

Dig a Little Deeper: Pattern of Faith

Abraham gives us the pattern of faith and he is a father to everyone who lives by faith in God (Gal 3:7 and Gal 3:29). Abraham was not righteous in himself; however, God counted Abraham righteous because of his faith (Acts 7:2-5 and Rom 4).

Abraham obeyed by going when he did not know:

- Where he was going (Heb 11:8-10).
- How God would accomplish His will (Heb 11:11-12).
- When God would fulfill His promises (Heb 11:13-16).

Questions for Study or Discussion: Faith to Endure

- Gideon was a frightened farmer who God used because of his faith (Jdg 6:11-7:25). Barak was unsure of his abilities, but believed God's promises (Jdg 4:4-15). When we falter in our faith, how can the examples of Gideon and Barak encourage us to continue?
- We remember Samson for his failings. In the end, he trusted God and was willing to give his life to defeat the enemy (Jdg 16:23-30). God commends him for his faith (Heb 11:32-34). When we succumb to sin, how can the example of Samson's faith challenge us to get back on a godly path?
- Samuel battled against Israel's idolatry and immorality. It takes courage to fight either physical battles or societal pressures. Compare and contrast these types of battles (1Sam 7:10 and 1Sam 10:18-19).
- God does not always deliver the faithful from their difficult circumstances (Heb 11:36-38). When God has not removed your difficult circumstances, what can help you trust Him (Dan 3:16-18)?

Dig a Little Deeper: Accept the Worst, Trust in the Best

When you are willing to accept the worst the world has to offer, you do it because of the best God has to offer. That is the pinnacle of faith. Our present sufferings don't compare to rewards God has promised [Rom 8:18 and 1Pet 1:4].

- Continues to deepen your trust in Him.
- Helps you be content and faithful as you wait for Him to fulfill His promises.
- Continues to remind you of your eternal destination.
- Gives you the courage and determination to endure difficult circumstances.
