

Heavenly Habits

As a Christ-follower, when you treasure your Redeemer, the Lord Jesus Christ, He will help you know what is a priority in your life. You will begin to develop habits that focus on your home in heaven rather than your temporary home on earth. You can call them heavenly habits.

What are some heavenly habits you can develop?

- Get quiet. Be still. Set aside quiet time to think about Jesus, read God's Word, and let God know you are listening Isa 6:8. When was the last time you told God you were listening to Him?
- Chew on God's Word. Read a small portion of the Bible several times. Ask God to show you how to apply it in your life. Think about it throughout the day Col 3:16. In what way does God's Word change your thoughts and behaviors?
- Fellowship with God in nature. Sit outside paying attention to the beauty of His creation. What do you see, hear, smell, and feel? Ask Him to line up your heart and priorities with His Psa 51:10.
- Worship God in the mundane. As you perform dreary or tedious tasks, make it a time to think about and praise God. Sing to Him, aloud if possible, to yourself if necessary. Remember, if you are a Christ-follower, you work for Him. When was the last time that you worked as unto the Lord Col 3:23?

Dig a Little Deeper: The Goal is Christ, Not Heaven

If you are a Christ-follower, your goal is not to get to heaven, but to be with Christ wherever He is.

You should rejoice in Christ and not trust your flesh.	Php 3:3
Nothing should matter to you more than Jesus Christ.	Php 3:8
Your intense desire should be to know Him.	Php 3:10

Application Challenge

- Put 5 minutes of Be Still time on your schedule at least once a day.
- Read a small portion of the Bible every day. Think about it throughout the day.
- Make a list of things about God's creation that amaze you.
- When you are doing a mundane task, sing silently to God.
